

Andersen in Germany (Andersen GmbH Rechtsberatung Steuerberatung) strengthens its Private Client Services division with the addition of partner Dr. Marco Ottenwalder.

Andersen gains Dr. Marco Ottenwalder as a new partner. The 43-year-old tax professional joined the firm's Frankfurt office on May 1, 2024. Dr. Ottenwalder will further expand the firm's private client services and advise wealthy private individuals and family offices, further promoting Andersen's internationally strong Private Clients service line.

Dr. Ottenwalder worked for seven years at the international business and tax law firm Pollath + Partners, most recently as counsel. He advises internationally active, wealthy private individuals and families, family businesses, and family offices on the tax-optimized structuring of their assets. His holistic advisory approach also includes complex compliance issues. Dr. Ottenwalder is a university lecturer in Germany and abroad, and an esteemed author.

"We are delighted to have gained Dr. Marco Ottenwalder, a well-known tax professional and empathetic team player professionally and academically. At Andersen, we attach great importance to offering our clients multidisciplinary, integrated solutions on an international level. With his many years of experience in advising large family estates, we are further strengthening our position in the important area of private client services," said Zvi Tirosh, Office Managing Partner of the Frankfurt office, and Philipp Zschaler, Managing Partner in Berlin.

About Dr. Marco Ottenwalder

Dr. Marco Ottenwalder studied business administration at the University of Bayreuth with a focus on tax law and finance and completed his doctorate on the subject of "cross-border demergers." He has also been a licensed tax professional since 2014. He has many years of experience in international and national tax law, particularly in advising wealthy individuals and families, family businesses, and family offices.
