

In memory of our valued partner and friend Alessio Rossi

It is with great sadness and deep sorrow that we must bid farewell to our esteemed partner colleague and friend Alessio Rossi, who has passed away after a long and serious illness at the age of 52.

Alessio was a founding partner of Andersen Germany and supported the development of our firm for many years as a tax partner in numerous functions, in particular as Managing Partner, member of the European Board and in the last two years as Coordinator of the European Industry Groups.

We all got to know him as a gentle, humorous, always eloquent and extremely likeable person. He was a great team player who always had the best interests of our firm and our clients at heart.

He was not only a valued partner for us, but also a friend to many - someone you could work with in confidence and always rely on. He was characterized by his confident manner and his unmistakable gentlemanly attitude, which accompanied him in every situation. He also bore his illness with impressive dignity, always maintaining his characteristic composure and unmistakable style.

We will sorely miss Alessio and will always carry him in our hearts and thoughts.

Our deepest sympathy in this difficult time goes to his family, to whom we extend our sincere condolences.

On behalf of all partners and employees
