

Andersen welcomes new Partner Philippe Kamarowsky - strengthening real estate and financing advice

Andersen GmbH Rechtsberatung Steuerberatung is pleased to announce the appointment of Philippe Kamarowsky, who joined the team in Frankfurt am Main as a Partner on January 1, 2025. Mr. Kamarowsky comes from the international law firm Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner (BCLP) and brings extensive expertise in the financing sector, particularly in real estate financing. Accompanying Mr. Kamarowsky from BCLP is Ms. Louisa Lierz, who joined Andersen as a Senior Associate.

Philippe Kamarowsky is a proven expert in advising both borrowers and lenders on financing real estate acquisitions and project developments across all asset classes, including residential, commercial, logistics, office and retail properties. His clients include financial institutions, insurance companies, pension funds, real estate companies, developers, family offices and other investors. He is particularly specialized in complex financing structures such as senior and mezzanine financing, including promissory note loans, both at national level and in the context of international (portfolio) financing. He also has extensive experience in restructuring advice, in particular in refinancing as well as loan and loan portfolio sales.

“With Philippe Kamarowsky, we are gaining an experienced advisor who significantly enhances our service portfolio in the area of real estate and project financing,” emphasized Zvi Tirosh and Philipp Zschaler, Managing Partners at Andersen in Germany. “His industry knowledge and extensive experience in supporting complex financing projects strengthen our position as a leading address for comprehensive legal and tax advice in this area.”

Before joining BCLP, Kamarowsky served as in-house counsel at Kreditanstalt für Wiederaufbau (KfW) and worked at a renowned Magic Circle law firm.

The Frankfurt am Main office is a central hub for Andersen in the area of national and international financial advice. The addition of Mr. Kamarowsky to the team underlines the strategic importance of this sector for the firm.

About Philippe Kamarowsky

Philippe Kamarowsky studied law at the Johann Wolfgang Goethe University in Frankfurt am Main and was admitted to the bar in 2005. He has many years of experience in the financing sector with a particular focus on real estate financing. His expertise includes advising on the financing of real estate acquisitions and project developments as well as on restructurings and complex financing structures. He supports national and international clients, including financial institutions, insurance companies, pension funds, real estate companies and family offices.
