

From Pond to Lake – Managing a new approach to US-German business relations

Köln, 11 October 2019

On Wednesday, October 9, Andersen Tax & Legal together with AmCham Germany and Freunde des Amerikahauses eV organized presentations and a panel discussion on the topic 'From Pond to lake - Managing a new approach to US-German business relations'. Speakers were Dr. Thomas Mayer, Head of Flossbach von Storch Research Institute (formerly chief economist of Deutsche Bank) and Prof. Heribert Hirte (member of the German Federal Parliament). They covered the current economic and political landscape.

The panel discussion as the whole event was moderated by Herman Knott, Partner of Andersen Tax & Legal, Cologne. Addressing business relations were Melinda Davis Lux, Partner at Womble Bond Dickinson, Greenville, SC, and Tobias Kuehl, Executive Vice President of Strategy and Sales, PHT International Inc., Charlotte, NC.

The conclusion was that business relations remain strong and continue to thrive between two countries which are long-term partners.
